- ✓ Understand how foreclosure will affect you and your family (and your credit score), so that you can make the best choices based on knowledge rather than fear.
- ✓ Discover your options, so that you can choose your best solution and get back in control.
- ✓ Most importantly, take back your life and move forward with confidence.

RIP THAT FORECLOSURE SIGN OFF YOUR HOME!

Or stop it from getting there in the first place.

Not many things feel worse than losing your home, especially in the hazy maze of Foreclosure, and we believe that every person has the right for a chance to escape this fate. A chance to hold your head up high. A chance to get control over your situation, your credit, your life.

You've worked hard and bought a home. You should be the one to decide if and when you let your home go, not some bank or lender. Even when financial hardships have taken their toll on your future, you still should have access to the best option for how to handle it. And you should be able to walk away with dignity and grace, knowing that this is not the end, but just the beginning.

33,000 IN 30 DAYS, YOU ARE NOT ALONE

According to [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] While that statistic is accurate, Experian shows the top 10 individual states where Foreclosure is on the rise.

And yes, for those of us living in Illinois, Foreclosure rates are at an all-time high at [REDACTED]%, the 4th highest state in the U.S.! And worse, Experian adds that more than [REDACTED] residents moved out of Illinois July 2016 through July 2017. Quite a blow for our beloved home state.

Needless to say, if you are facing this catastrophe, you are not alone. And it's not your fault! Missing mortgage payments is never a first option and if you're facing that option, or have already been there, we understand that, like thousands before you, you didn't get here lightly.

You've most likely been blindsided with:

- Divorce
- Increased interest rates
- Unexpected unemployment, death, or birth
- Medical expenses
- Credit card debt or too many bills
- Maintenance expenses

And chances are, you've done everything you can to hold it together. Held multiple jobs, refinanced, even borrowed money.
